„ Angels of romance “

It's late at night, but the people are moving
Across the street where the angels are grooving.
A perfect time for the flame of the moonlight.
So let us shake 'till the sirens are in sight.

Let's go

Angels of romance
When the black night is falling and the light turns to red.
Angels of romance
When Orion is calling I get into your head.

Hey man common, follow me and I show you.
The gift of love, got the keys to get into.
Let's spend the night in the chamber of romance.
I am the one who will show you the dreamlands.

Let's go

Angels of romance
When the black night is falling and the light turns to red.
Angels of romance
When Orion is calling I get into your head.
